GRINNELL COLLEGE

134th Reunion

Reunion Weekend Schedule

May 31–June 2, 2013

Dear Grinnellians:

On behalf of the entire Grinnell College community, welcome to the 134th Reunion Weekend!

Reunion Weekend brings together students, alumni, families, faculty, staff and friends for four days of events, entertainment and celebration of the places, people and programs which make us uniquely Grinnell. Dance the night away on Saturday at the Harris Center to Checker and the Bluetones. Celebrate and honor the 2013 Alumni Award recipients at Alumni Assembly. Bring your family to Friday's Carnival. Gain fresh perspectives throughout the weekend at a wide array of receptions, forums, and performances.

This weekend is the result of months of work by many in the Grinnell College community: alumni volunteers, staff members, faculty, and students. I especially offer thanks to our dedicated Reunion Planning committees, who have worked diligently over the past year planning this reunion with the goal of providing you a terrific opportunity to reconnect with old friends and experience firsthand the many campus transformations since you graduated.

By returning to Grinnell for this milestone weekend, you are actively participating in a process that will help strengthen and enhance Grinnell College. Alumni are an essential part of this community when actively engaged with the life of the College and committed to its success. Your participation in the 2013 Alumni Reunion is a clear demonstration of your love for Grinnell and your desire to help improve the educational experience for all Grinnell students.

Thank you again for your continuing interest, enthusiasm and devotion to Grinnell. We are honored to welcome you home this weekend.

With warm personal regards,

Beth Halloran
vice president for development and alumni relations

Shuttles to Central Park will be available from the front of the Joe Rosenfield '25 Center (JRC) starting at 3 p.m.

5:30–8 p.m.

Music in the Park

Central Park, Fourth Avenue and Broad Street

Enjoy a variety of hits from the '70s, '80s, and '90s, including music by Bob Dylan, Neil Young, Eric Clapton, and Wilco, as well as original music. Jailhouse Payback features James Rechs '97 and guest musician Marc Janssen '97. Shuttles to Central Park will be available from the front of the JRC starting at 3 p.m.

8–10:00 p.m.

Alumni Happy Hour and Grinnell Pub Quiz

Joe Rosenfield '25 Center, Lyle's Pub (lower level)

Visit Lyle's Pub for a beer, soda, and some light refreshments, while competing for prizes in the student-run Grinnell Pub Quiz.

Friday, May 31:

7 a.m.

AA/Al-Anon Open Meeting

Center for Religion, Spirituality, and Social Justice (CRSSJ), 1233 Park St.

7:30–9 a.m.

Breakfast

JRC, Marketplace

8 a.m.

Yoga in the Gallery with Monica St. Angelo

Matthew and Carolyn Swartz Bucksbaum '51 Center for the Arts, Faulconer Gallery

Enjoy a moderately paced vinyasa flow class in a relaxing and inspiring atmosphere. Includes warming and invigorating poses and a final period of relaxation. Mats are provided. No experience necessary. Please wear comfortable, flexible clothing and bring a towel.

8 a.m.

BRAG (Bike Ride around Grinnell)

Meet at Bikes to You, 921 Broad St.

Choose which route sounds more interesting to you, either paved roads around the town (12 miles) or gravel roads out in the country (15 miles). In this guided ride, you will get a chance to get some exercise while exploring the town of Grinnell or the countryside of Iowa. Plan on meeting at Bikes to You, and we will divide up from there. Helmets are required; bike rentals are available. Of course, you are encouraged to bring your own bike too! If you would like to rent a bike, please call or email Bikes to You, 641-236-8600 or craig@bikestoyou.com (limited number of bikes available). We promise this ride will remind you of the beauty of small-town Iowa while also stretching your legs on this cycling adventure.

9 a.m.–5 p.m.

Forum Kiosks

Joe Rosenfield '25 Center, Lobby

Stop by our kiosks next to the registration desk and be one of the first to take a sneak-peak live tour of Forum, the newly named replacement to the current Loggia.

9–10:30 a.m.

Tour of Charles Benson Bear '39 Recreation and Athletic Center (Bear Center)

Tour will begin in the Natatorium Lobby

Join Dee Fairchild, associate professor of athletics and former athletic director, and Taunita Stephenson, coordinator for diversity and inclusion in athletics, for a tour of this new facility. Space is limited. Sign up at the Reunion registration desk.

9–11 a.m.

Trip to Conard Environmental Research Area (CERA)

Departs from JRC, Lobby Door

Join faculty from the Department of Biology in touring the College's biological field station, including the Environmental Education Center, and see the wind turbine. Space is limited. Signup at the Reunion registration desk.

10–11 a.m.

Tour of Robert N. Noyce '49 Science Center

Meet by the sundial at the west entrance

Tour with Jim Swartz, Dack Professor of Chemistry, and learn more about the facility named after Robert N. Noyce '49 (one of the reunion classes this year). In case of rain, meet in the west lobby of the Noyce Science Center.

10–11 a.m.

Tour of Campus

Departs from JRC, Lobby

Join current students for a walking tour of Grinnell's campus. There will be a golf cart available for those who prefer a riding tour. Golf cart capacity is limited.

10 a.m.–5 p.m.

Oral History Project

Alumni Recitation Hall (ARH), Audiovisual Center

Come by yourself or with a friend to share and preserve memories of your time at Grinnell College. See your registration packet for detailed information about how you can participate in this special Reunion project.

10:30 a.m.–noon

Liberal Arts in Prison Program: Panel Presentation

ARH 302

In keeping with Grinnell's mission and core values, the Liberal Arts in Prison Program provides liberal arts education to men and women at nearby prisons and children at the Iowa Juvenile Home. In June of 2011, the program inaugurated its First Year of College Program, which enrolls incarcerated students in a rigorous first year at Grinnell. Join former incarcerated student Michael Cosby; George Drake '56, president emeritus and professor of history; Emily Guenther '07, program coordinator; and student leader Amber Gruner '13 for a panel discussion about the program's impact.

11 a.m.–12:30 p.m.

Honor G Lunch

Bear Center, Darby Gymnasium

Join the athletics staff and current and former coaches for a lunch celebrating athletics at Grinnell College. You do not have to be a member of Honor G to attend, but tickets must be purchased in advance. Limited tickets may be available at the registration desk.

Noon–1 p.m.

Lunch

JRC, Marketplace

1–3 p.m.

Golf Scramble

Grinnell Golf and Country Club, 933 13th Ave.

Preregistration required. (In the case of inclement weather, this event will be cancelled.)

1–2 p.m.

Giving of Your Time and Talent: Volunteer Opportunities

ARH 102

Grinnell College looks to alumni volunteers for help in many areas, such as offering outreach to prospective students, helping students develop meaningful careers, and serving as an alumni representative for your class or the area where you live. Staff from the Office of Development and Alumni Relations and Nancy Schmulbach Maly '61, Alumni Council president-elect, will share information about the range of opportunities to volunteer.

1–2 p.m.

Book Lecture and Q&A with Angela Onwuachi-Willig '94

JRC, Room 209

Angela Onwuachi-Willig '94, Kierscht Professor, University of Iowa College of Law, will discuss her book, According to Our Hearts: Rhinelander v. Rhinelander and the Law of the Multiracial Family (Yale University Press). She will explore how law and social norms function together to frame the normative ideal of family as monoracial and heterosexual. The book includes insights from surveys and interviews of both opposite-sex and same-sex interracial couples.

1–2:30 p.m.

Organ Concert & Open Bench Time

Herrick Chapel

Join Carolyn Carpenter Atkin ’58 and Linda Bryant, College organist, for an organ concert in Herrick Chapel. Following the concert, there will be an open bench time for an opportunity to play and learn more about Grinnell’s restored, 60-year-old Aeolian-Skinner organ. Sponsored by the classes of 1957–1958 and 1947–1950.

1:30–2:30 p.m.

Grinnell Community Walking Tour

Departs from the John Chrystal Center, Sixth Avenue and Park Street

Take a guided walking tour of downtown Grinnell led by a member of the Grinnell Area Chamber of Commerce and the Grinnell Convention and Visitors Bureau. Rain or shine.

2–3:30 p.m.

Big Prisons, Small Towns, and the Adaptive Life: A Conversation with Tracy Huling ’77

JRC, Room 101

What do urban and rural America have in common? Both have been profoundly affected by our society’s love affair with prisons over the past 40 years. Join Tracy Huling, researcher, policy analyst, filmmaker, organizer, social entrepreneur, currently a Soros Justice Fellow at the Open Society Foundations and founder/president of the Prison Public Memory Project, for a film screening and conversation about mass incarceration, her multiple responses to it, and how her journey “up the river” was enabled by the kind of education she received at Grinnell. Sponsored by the classes of 1977–1979.

3–5:30 p.m.

Reunion Family Fun & Weelays

MacEachron Field

Children of all ages are welcome to join current Grinnell students for water balloons, crafts, prizes, and inflatable games. Weelays sponsored by the class of 1988

3:30–5 p.m.

Harry Hopkins 1912: A lecture with George McJimsey '58

ARH 302

Last year marked the centennial of Harry Hopkins' graduation from Grinnell College in 1912. Join George McJimsey as he explores the life and career of this complicated New Dealer. McJimsey's book, Harry Hopkins: Defender of the Poor and Champion of Democracy, was nominated for a Pulitzer Prize in 1987 and continues to be one of the most recognized and respected accounts of Hopkins' life. Sponsored by the classes of 1957 and 1958.

3:30–5 p.m.

Admission and Financial Aid Presentation: An Introduction to the College Planning Process

ARH 102

Staff from Grinnell's admission and financial aid offices will present an introduction to the college process for parents and/or their "chips." Topics covered include college research, the college essay, financial aid, the importance of extracurricular activities, and more.

3 p.m.

Coaches Reception

Grinnell Golf and Country Club, 933 13th Ave.

Join the athletics staff, current coaches, and former coaches for a reception following the golf scramble.

4:30–5:30 p.m.

GLBTQ and Allied Alumni Reception

Younker Hall, Stonewall Resource Center (lower level)

Join current student leaders from Grinnell's GLBTQ and ally community for a reception.

12:30–2 p.m.

Scarlet & Black Open House

JRC, Room 220

Drop by and visit the Scarlet & Black in the new publications office to look at archived issues from your time at Grinnell and to see how the newspaper has changed over the years. Current student staff members will be on hand to talk about the publishing process and future goals for the S&B.

1:30–2:30 p.m.

Preschool Open House

1022 Park St.

Tour the wonderful new facility and visit with Carol Replogle Nielsen ’56 and Karen Veerhusen-Langerud from the Grinnell College Preschool to hear all about the exciting preschool program.

1:45–3:15 p.m.

Our Time in History: Discussing the Legacies of the ’60s

ARH 302

The class of 1963 graduated into an America grappling with profound political, social, and economic change. By the end of the decade, the civil rights movement, the war in Vietnam, and the women’s movement, among others, changed both our assumptions and our expectations about America and our role in American life as newly minted college graduates. Terry and Carol Miller Parssinen, both class of 1963, who co-teach the course America in the ’60s at the University of Tampa, will facilitate a discussion with classmates and other attendees about the impact of the ’60s on their personal and professional lives. The Parssinens will briefly highlight key developments in civil tights, Vietnam, and the women’s movement and then open the floor to participants for their comments and observations about these and other legacies of the ’60s during the past 50 years. Sponsored by the class of 1963.

1:30–3 p.m.

Celestial Sacred Harp Singers

Bucksbaum Center, Room 152

Discover the joy of “shape-notes” with a rousing rehearsal of sacred harp singing directed by Amy Stubenhaus ’79 and Mary Beth George ’79. All are welcome! Sponsored by the classes of 1977–1979.

3 p.m.

Moment of Reflection

While the carillon bells ring in their honor, pause for a moment wherever you are to join classmates and friends to remember those from the Grinnell community who are no longer with us.

3:30–5 p.m.

Alumni Assembly

Herrick Chapel

The premier event of the weekend includes the presidential address by Raynard S. Kington and presentation of the Alumni Awards by the Alumni Council. All alumni are encouraged to attend.

JRC, Marketplace

End the weekend right. This is the perfect setting to say goodbye before heading home. If you must leave campus before 8:30 a.m., you may exchange your Sunday breakfast meal ticket for an assortment of breakfast items at the Spencer Grill.

9:30–10:30 a.m.

Interdenominational Christian Worship Service

Herrick Chapel

The service has been organized by Rev. Deanna Shorb, dean of religious life and features Rev. Edmund Zelley ’88 and Rev. Don Yungclas ’50. The Alumni Choir will also perform a modern premier of an oratorio written by Grinnell professor Edward Scheve (1865–1924).

1:30 p.m.

Residence Halls Close

Please return all room keys and security cards to the registration desk in the JRC.

General Information

Forum Kiosks

Joe Rosenfield '25 Center, Lobby

We heard you! Stop by our kiosks next to the registration desk and be one of the first to take a sneak-peak live tour of Forum, the newly named replacement to the current Loggia. All alumni are welcome and encouraged to join us, and can help play an important role in the testing of our new product. We'll have staff available to help current Loggia users claim their Forum account and assist new users in Forum account creation. See you there!

Friday . . . . . 9 a.m.–5 p.m.

Saturday . . . . . 9 a.m.–5 p.m.

Emergency and Non-emergency Assistance

For emergency, 24-hour assistance, please call the Office of Safety and Security at x4600. From a cell phone or off campus, dial 641-269-4600.

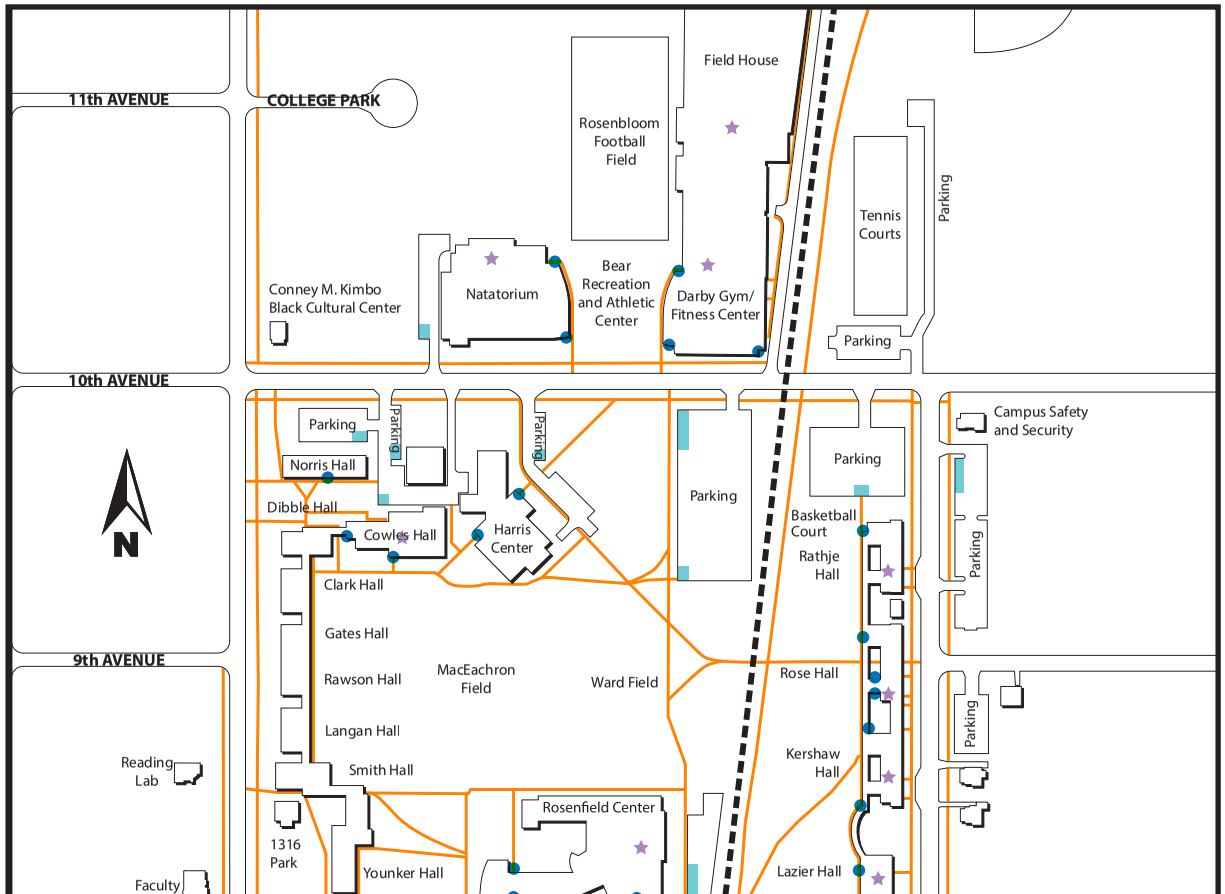

The Reunion registration desk (641-269-3715 or x3715) is "Reunion Central" on campus and can assist you with all non-emergency matters.

Name Badges

Please be sure to wear your name badge at all times, as it is your entrance pass to all events.

Telephone Use

The phones in the residence hall rooms are set up to allow free local calling and will access any of the on-campus phones. To call another campus phone, either another dorm room or campus offices, just dial the appropriate four-digit extension. To dial a local, off-campus number, dial 7 first (there will be no dial tone after pressing 7; this is normal). If you wish to use long distance service, you will need to use a toll-free access option (phone cards, personal 800 numbers, or the ever popular CALL-ATT types).

Art Exhibitions

Animals Among Us

Bucksbaum Center, Faulconer Gallery

Animals Among Us takes as its premise that we define, structure, and connect with the animal realm in a wide, complex network of relationships that inform our understanding of ourselves as humans. Developed by 10 student curators in the seminar Captured Creatures (fall 2012), the exhibition uses works of art and other artifacts from Grinnell College collections to unpack the connections between humans and animals, and to address — or call into question — the binaries we often think about in relation with animals (wild/domestic, biological/cultural, self/other, human/animal). Drawing on their majors in anthropology, art, biology, history, and literature, the juniors and seniors in the course selected the art, designed the exhibition, shaped its themes, and wrote a catalog exploring our lives among the other animals.

From a Distance: The Art of Lorna Bieber

Bucksbaum Center, Faulconer Gallery

Photographer Lorna Bieber builds her monumental installations from the vast array of images that activate contemporary culture. Through an intense process of taking and remaking these found images, Bieber creates a visual language that evokes memories of past worlds while stoking the imagination to conjure new ones.

Photographs from Pioneering 1846-1996: A Photographic History of Grinnell College by Alan Jones '50
Chrystal Center Gallery, lower level

Harper's Pictorial History of the Civil War (Annotated), 15 prints by Kara Walker
Burling Gallery, lower level

Grinnell Literary Societies
Burling Library, lower level and first floor
Documents, photographs, and paraphernalia from Grinnell College's earliest student organizations. Curated by Diane Lenertz '15 and Sam Dunnington '14

Art from the Grinnell College Art Collection by Larry Homolka '63
*JRC, Smith Gallery*A small exhibition of works in various media by Larry Homolka '63 (1941–2002).

Enjoy your meal in Grinnell College's Marketplace.

- Stop in the coatroom and deposit your books, backpacks, coats, etc.
- Present your Pioneer One-Card (if appropriate) to the checker. We accept student meal plans, dining dollars, campus cash, guest meals, cash, credit, debit, and pre-arranged departmental charges.
- Check out the freshly prepared options at our entrée stations: the grill, deli, eggs/pasta, pizza, homestyle, vegan, Halal, wheat free/gluten free, and stir-fry. Soup, salad, and dessert are also available. A selection of beverages is located at several stations throughout the facility.
- Choose a seat in the Commons, the Quad-inspired Pavilion, the Crescent with purple banquettes, the Cozy area near the vegan station, the second-floor Mezzanine, or reservable dining rooms (White, Day, and Livermore Dining Rooms).
- Take your tray to the tray return and put silverware in the receptacle. We compost, so it's not necessary to discard trash.
