

Stone, Judson Lewis ("Jud") 05/25/1938--02/17/1990. Jud Stone from Topeka, Kansas served in the U.S. Army, 1956-57, before enrolling at Grinnell in 1957. He received a B.A. degree in Psychology in 1961. He was active in the campus radio station (KGRW) and lived in Langan Hall.

In 1963 he obtained a Master's Degree in Social Work from the University of Michigan. He then worked as a child therapist before becoming the Director of the Downriver Child Guidance Clinic in Detroit. When federal legislation mandated development of community mental health centers, Jud became one of the earliest directors of such a center. In 1981, Jud moved from Michigan to Illinois to become of Director of the Elk Grove-Schaumburg Community Mental Health Center in suburban Chicago.

In 1960 he married Judith Bourne Stone (Grinnell 1960). When Jud died at age 51 in 1990, he was survived by Judith and their two sons.
