Class of 1969 50th Reunion Gift Projects

Class of 1969 Martin Luther King, Jr. Endowed Scholarship(s): An endowed fund to provide need-based scholarships to support diversity in the student body and to meet the scholarship need of one or more students. Note: If you include the College in your planned giving, you can, if you wish, direct a bequest to the Class of 1969 Endowed Scholarship(s) Fund. Please check with Buddy Boulton (see below) on how to do it.

Center for Careers, Life, and Service: supports internships, externships and apprenticeships

Other areas you may wish to support

In addition to (or instead of) supporting the 1969 Class Projects, feel free to direct your Reunion giving to any endowments or capital project, to operating support of an academic department, varsity sport or other extracurricular activity or campus group, or to annual operating funds, including:

Pioneer Fund: unrestricted gifts for the College's areas of greatest need

Financial Aid: direct support of scholarships and grants

Institute for Global Engagement: supports course-embedded travel

Optional gift details:

Name (please print)

Address (For honorary gifts, a card is sent to notify the honoree.)

I/we would like this gift to be anonymous.

Planned Giving:

Buddy Boulton, Director of Planned Giving, will be happy to talk with you about a variety of ways to include Grinnell College in your estate planning (not just in your will). You can reach him at boultonb@grinnell.edu or 866-850-1846...or just check here and he will contact you. You can also go to this website to view options and information on planned giving at <http://plannedgiving.grinnell.edu/>. The dollar amounts of any new or increased planned gift commitments documented between now and June 30, 2019 — like the totals on these Giving Agreements — count in 50th Reunion Class Giving.

Questions?

If you have any questions about this Giving Agreement, or about 50th Reunion giving in general, please contact the Development Officer assigned to our class for our 50th Reunion — Mae Parker, Director of Annual Giving, parkerma@grinnell.edu or 866-850-1846.

2019 Honor Roll of Giving will recognize at the following levels the entire five-year total on this Giving Agreement (if agreement is received by June 30, 2019):
