It's Never Too Late for a Little (or Big) Change

Noyce, Room 1023

This panel discussion will be followed by the networking program – Connecting: Alumni Career Chats. Attend both of these events to take full advantage of the information and networking opportunities these career and change focused programs will offer.

This facilitated panel will look at how other Grinnell alumni have leveraged their education to make successful career changes. Join us if you're thinking about a mid-life career change or if you have experiences that fellow Grinnellians could learn from. We will explore how you can leverage your Grinnell education, alumni resources and network for second and third life careers. We will connect you with professionals who have experience in this field and we will connect participants with resources to help any Grinnellian considering professional changes. Sponsored by the class of 1994.

10:15 a.m.-11:15 a.m.

Admission and Financial Aid Open House

Admission and Student Financial Services Center, 1227 Park Street

1-2 p.m.

Activist Hour

JRC, 2nd Floor Lobby

Drop in for this family friendly chance to relive a social justice study break! Taking inspiration from the work of fellow alumni, we'll provide ideas and materials for immediate action you can take with phone calls, emails, or letters in support of some great causes. Also, take home some tips on ways to advance social justice in your everyday life.

1-2:30 p.m.

Pioneer Days/Pioneer Ways: What Might a Grinnellian "Retirement" Look Like?

HSSC, Room S1325

Bring your hopes, fears, advice, and expectations to this interactive conversation about how we live out the rest of our lives. So much of what we go through in midlife is framed negatively, and yet there are so many positives to this stage of our lives. We have greater wisdom, resilience, and emotional intelligence. When you pair these strengths with the love of learning and the open mindedness that so many Grinnellians share, we can begin to envision the next stage of our lives as something liberating, creative, and fulfilling. Hear from alumni who are exploring different ways of living, working, and pursuing their passions in their 50s and beyond. Sponsored by the classes of 1983-84-85.

1-2:30 p.m.

Open House at the New Center for Religious, Spirituality, and Social Justice (CRSSJ)
